

CV

(Last updated in January 2020)

Norbert Häring (international spelling: Haering) born 1963, lives and works as a financial journalist in Frankfurt am Main, Germany. He grew up on a farm in southern Germany. He studied economics in Heidelberg and Saarbrücken. In Saarbrücken he obtained a Ph.D. in economics with a thesis on the political economy of regional subsidies.

At Commerzbank he worked for three years, first in the economics department, then as a speech writer and Managing Editor of the annual and quarterly reports. In 1997 he moved switched to journalism. He worked for Börsen-Zeitung and Financial Times Deutschland, before joining Handelsblatt in 2002 as a correspondent for monetary affairs. In 2002 he convened the Shadow ECB Council, a Group of 15 eminent economists from financial institutions, universities and research institutes, for which he served as (non-voting) chairman until 2015. Since 2012 he is in charge of economics and business cycle reporting.

Norbert Häring is author (with Olaf Storbeck) of the best-selling book „Ökonomie 2.0“, which won the title economics book of the year 2007 by getAbstract and was translated into English ("Economics 2.0") and four other languages, as well as the author of several more popular books on economics. In 2014 he was awarded the Keynes-Prize for Economic Writing by Keynes-Gesellschaft (Keynes-Society).

He is co-founder and co-director of the World Economics Association WEA. Founded in 2011, it is the second largest association of economists worldwide with about 15.000 members. Its Goal is to promote pluralism in economics, in the regional Dimension as well as with regard to the methods and objects of study. From 2012 to 2015 he served as co-editor of the WEA-journal World Economic Review.

Publications and presentations in English

(For a full list of publications, video and audio-files, see Lebenslauf)

- Economics as Superstructure. Presentation at a Seminar at the House of Lords, London, 23. March 2015.
- Economists and the Powerful – Convenient Truths, Distorted Facts, Ample Rewards. 2012. with Niall Douglas. Anthem.
- The veil of deception over money. 2013. Real World Economic Review. Issue no. 63. 2 - 19.

Money and more

Blog by Norbert Häring

<https://norberthaering.de>

---

- The sources and consequences of bankers' power. 2010. International Journal of Pluralism and Economics Education, Vol. 1, 242 – 259. Interjurisdictional redistribution and public goods with increasing returns to scale. 1998. Public Choice, Vol. 95, 321-329.
- Presentation and discussion with Lord Robert Skidelsky und Steve Keen at the annual meeting of the Institute for New Economic Thinking, in Hong Kong, April 6, 2013 in the plenary session „Economics and the Powerful“ (from minute 32:20).
- Economics 2.0. What the best minds in economics can teach you about business and life. St Martin's Press. 2008